Here to stay?

Studying in the Age of AI: Pitfalls and Opportunities

ABSTRACT

AI is here to stay. To deal with this reality we need to understand what chatbots are and do. They can make us faster, and in some cases more efficient, but will they necessarily help us learn and in what way? Our guest speaker, Dr Carrie Ankerstein (Saarland University), will explore these questions in her lecture 'ChatGPT, the Modern Classroom & the Inner Luddite'.

The lecture will be followed by a panel discussion in which a panel of experts, teaching staff, and students will discuss how these new technologies transform our relationship to knowledge and what this means for university students.
