

ISCB Regional Students Group (RSG)

< Empower. Connect. Bridge. />

Who are we?

RSG is an organization officially affiliated to the International Society for Computational Biology (ISCB), connecting students and junior researchers from Bioinformatics, Computational and Experimental Biology.

If you are looking for:

- Networking opportunities within the University of Luxembourg,
- Getting in touch with other RSGs in Europe and around the world,
- Organizing and attending academic trainings such as online seminars, debates, round tables on different subjects,
- Social events such as Quizzes or co-organization of the Pizza club with the Doctoral School Representatives, then ISCB RSG Luxembourg is for you!!

The membership is free,
so do not hesitate to connect with us:
