

Faculté de Droit, d'Economie et de Finance

BACHELOR ACADEMIQUE EN DROIT

PROCEDURE D'ADMISSION EN PREMIERE ANNEE

ESSAY

Present a legal debate which has attracted your interest in the media in previous months. Explain the arguments exchanged by each side and conclude by giving your own opinion.

Suggested topics:

« Jus est ars boni et aequi » (« Law is the art of the good and the just »). Discuss.

Dura lex, sed lex: the law is harsh but it's the law. Discuss.

What is the relation between law and justice? Can any country in the world claim that its laws are just? Should it be able to claim that?

What is the relation between law and history? Should law be a reflection of the history of a people?

What is the relation between law and national identity? Should law be a reflection of the identity of a people?

The voting rights of foreigners, in Luxembourg and abroad

The debate on a written Constitution in United Kingdom

The struggle for independence in Scotland and/or in Catalonia

The situation of Human Rights in China

What are the powers of the president of the US?

What is the role of the Emperor in Japan?

Democracy in Switzerland

What is 'Globalization'? Why does it matter for lawyers?

What is the American Convention on Human Rights?

The new Constitution in Egypt

What is the position and power of religious clerics in the constitutional system of Iran?

The reform of the Luxembourgish Constitution

Should there be a presumption of innocence in criminal proceedings?

Does prison do any good?

Why allow parliament to legislate?

Should the European Union have a President?

Free movement of European citizens, foundation of the integration process or risk to social cohesion?

Which is the most appropriate level for the protection of Human rights, National, European or International?

Should future enlargements of the EU be submitted to national referendums?

Does European citizenship matter?

Should the E.U. have jurisdiction to legislate in the field of education?

How should the interest of the child be protected in the context of surrogacy?

What should be the most important condition to become a Luxembourg national?

Should a child born outside of marriage inherit the same share of his parents' assets than his half-brother born into the marriage?

Should a lawyer defend a client convicted of torturing?

The democratic deficit of the EU political system: myth or reality?

Do you agree with the following assumption: "there is no possible abuse of freedom of speech"?

Should a person have to pay damages by the mere fact that he/she has caused harm to another person?

Is banking secrecy a good thing?

Is freedom of the press an absolute right?

Have celebrities a right to privacy?

The recognition in Luxembourg of gay marriage

Length: no more than 1000 words.

Warning: copying even part of your essay from the internet will result in your application being rejected.