

Receipt of the decision.

Notification of Stage 1 decision no more than four (4) weeks after receipt of appeal.

Within one (1) month of receipt of Stage 1 decision/original decision.

Notification of Stage 2 decision no more than one (1) month after notification of formal appeal.

Submission of appeal to Tribunal within one (1) month of notification of Stage 2 decision.

There is a disagreement with an academic/administrative decision.

Stage 1: Non-contentious appeal submitted to the decision-maker.

Non-contentious appeal is admitted.

Non-contentious appeal is upheld, issue resolved to student/applicant's satisfaction.

Student/applicant decides to proceed directly to Stage 2: Formal appeal.

Non-contentious appeal is not admitted.

Non-contentious appeal is rejected, issue not resolved to student/applicant's satisfaction.

Stage 2: Formal appeal submitted to the Dispute Committee

Dispute Committee confirms receipt of the formal appeal and reviews the request.

Appeal is complete and admissible: Dispute Committee examines the case. A hearing may be organized.

Appeal is not complete, additional documentation is requested and appellant is informed of further steps.

Appeal is not admitted.

Dispute Committee upholds the appeal, issue is resolved to student/applicant's satisfaction.

Dispute Committee rejects formal appeal and/or issue not resolved to Student/applicant's satisfaction.

Appeal (recours en annulation) before the Administrative Tribunal